

The image shows the front cover of an antique album. The cover is bound in dark brown leather with a fine, pebbled texture. In the center, there is a gold-tooled octagonal label with a double-line border. Inside the label, the words "ALBUM" and "COURNAULT" are printed in a gold, serif font, one above the other. The cover shows signs of age and wear, particularly along the edges and the spine on the left, where the leather has chipped away to reveal a lighter, fibrous material underneath. The spine features several raised bands. The corners of the cover are reinforced with diagonal lines of gold-tooled leather.
